Pive More Marriages that Autum has Added to Its Score Against Spring. Five marriages up town yesterday, with the many October weddings, seems to indicate that spring is yielding to fall as the favorite season for weddings.

Miss Nina Le Boy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Le Boy of 60 East Forty-ninth street, and Mr. Andrew Miller, one of the edstors and proprietors of Life, were married in St. Thomas's Protestant Episoopal Church at 4 P. M. The church is one of the largest in town, but every seat was taken. The bride is related to the Livingston family, and her own is also one of the oldest families in the city. The chancel was decorated with palms and gar-lands of roses. The bride leaned on the arm of her father while advancing to the altar. The bride wore a heavy cream-white satin gown made in a simple manner, with train: the corsage was cut V shape, the sleeves were slashed, and the trimming was old lace. The bride's ornaments were a string of pearls that descended to her from her grandmother, Mrs. Alexander Pell, and a diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom. Her vell was of tulle. In her left hand she carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmalds-Miss Helen R. Miller, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Ada R. Bates, who is to marry the brother of the bride; Miss Lella C. Pell, a cousin of the bride.

Church united the couple.

Miss Adelaide Downey, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Downey, was married yesterday afternoon at the residence of her parente, 28 East Fifty-sixth street, to Mr. Henry De Groot Hastings, son of the Rev. Dr. Thomas Hastings. Henry De Groot Hastings, son of the Rev. Dr. Thomas R. Hastings. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and creeping vines. The bride is tall and blonde. She wore a gown of white moirs antique slik made with train. Deep lace and sliver flounces covered the front and sides of the skirt. The bodice was cut low, back and front, and was trimmed elaborately with point lace. The vell was of tulle and the ornaments were diamonds. There were two bridesmaids, Miss Clara Agnes Downey, the bride's only sister, and Miss Isabelle Hastings, sister of the groom. Miss Downey's rown was of white Ottoman silk, walking length, with white gauze in front, embroidered with pink rose buds, and she carried a bouquet of Mermet roses. Miss Hastings's gown was of white the side of Mermet roses. Miss Hastings's gown was of white moiré, trimmed with gauze and embroidered with gold. She carried Mme. Caroline Huster roses.

H. McAlpin, Dr. and Mrs. Choate, Miss Durant, Miss Pupke. Mr. and Mrs. James E. Martin, and Miss Laura Elisworth. Mr. and Mrs. Hastings will take a trip through the Southern States.

At the Madison Square Presbyterian Church last evening. Miss Julia Ely, eldest daubter of Mr. William H. Ely and niece of ex. Mayor Smith Ely, Jr. was married to Mr. Charles A. Bmylle of Brooklyn. On either side of the pulpit was a mass of treef palms, and at the base were garlands and bouquet of roses and chrysanthemum. Hiss Ely catered the church on the arm of her father. Her gown was of white duchesse satin, walking length. and draped with silver tulle. She carried La France roses. The best man was Dr. Arthur Elmore Bmylie brother of th

Invited to Chill's Hig Island. PANAMA, Oct. 24.-The Chilian Immigration Agent in Europe has been ordered to offer free passage to Chilos to twenty Irish families who are experisin the art of dressing flax. It is said the plant grows wild there in abundance: that it is of excellent quality, and that if a faw people who understand preparing the staple for market are once established there the industry will soon essums important proportions. Grants of land and good indusements are to be offered the families.

Pawama, Oct. 24.—A number of English and Spanish colonists have arrived on an island at the mouth of the Orinoco, and intend establishing a colony there. The Venezuelan Government is assisting them.

THE FIFTH INSPECTORS. They will Go to the United Labor Party if

Referee Stetson concluded taking testimony last night in the matter of that fifth elecctor, who is claimed so flercely by both the United Labor party and the Progresaive Labor party.

Hugo Vogt testified that he was a member of the United Labor party until after the Syracuse Convention, when he secoded with those now called Progressives. Long before this time he and his colleagues knew that application blanks for inspectorships had been filled out by members of the party in the different districts. He made no objection. The call for the Webster Hall Convention, which organized the Progressive Labor party, came from dis-trict organizations which came into being after trict organizations which came into the Syracuse Convention. the Syracuse Convention. The syracuse Convention and the syracuse contains the syracuse for Mayor was a temporary municipal party, and that the party formed since was national and general. It was the mantle of the latter party which descended to the Prograssives.

Progressives.

Lawyer Wakeman of the Progressive Labor party, who was fighting for delay, got a little of it by declaring that he wasn't certain that the referee was proceeding under a correct copy of Judge Van Brunt's order. He went off to find Judge Van Brunt, and Lawyer Shephard went, protesting, after him. Pour hours, from 11 to 3, were thus lost, and Judge Van Brunt was not found. The referee said that the case must proceed, and that it must be finished that day.

Brut was not found. The referee said that the case must proceed, and that it must be finished that day.

Then William A. Wallace, who said he was a Knight of Labor organizer, and was connected with D. A. 49: Edward W. Searing of the Leader, and George S. Block, the Progressive chieftain, all gave testimony going to show that the Henry George Mayoralty campaign clubs began in the Central Labor Union: that these clubs disbanded after the election, and that the present George platform does not represent the principles of the men who started the party.

The case closed at 7 o'clock in the evening. The referee said that he would hand his report to the General Term at 20 clock this afternoon.

"I don't see," he said, "how the Progressive Labor party has a shadow of a claim to these inspectorships, and Irving Hall has withdrawn its claim. At the same time, I have some doubts about the continuity of the organization of the United Labor party. I have not made up my mind on this question, but I am going to work late to-night and do so."

SHE HAD TO MARRY OR DIE.

A Thief with a Pistel in his Pocket Takes Judge Donohue has annulled the marriage peremony performed on Oct. 24, 1886, between Agnes O'Donnell and Henry Hopatian. Agnes was but 17 on that day, and she was forced into the marriage under threats of death. She lived at 328 East Fourteenth street with her widowed mother. She testified that she had repeatedly refused to marry Honahan, and on Oct. 24, 1886, again refused him. He forced her into an adjoining room, pressed a pistol against her head, and said:

'If you don't marry me and give me one hundred 'bones,' I'll shoot you."

She was required to dress and follow him to a carriage. On the way to the elergyman's house he again exhibited the revolver and rehouse he again exhibited the revolver and repeated his threats. He warned her that she must assent to the marriage and act as though the marriage were agreeable to her, and must answer "yes" to all the questions of the minister or die.

By the time the carriage stopped she was so completely under the influence of fear that she entered the clergyman's house with him, and allowed the marriage ceremony to be performed which united her to a young desperado. Afteward she hastened to her home, where she still refused to live with him as her husband. He forced himself into the house as a boarder, saying he had a right there, but she submitted to him only at the point of a pistol, never voluntarily. She refused to occupy the same room with him.

Honshan is now in Elmira Reformatory, where he was sent by Recorder Smyth for pocket picking. Miss O'Donnell says that a few years ago she recovered damages from a railroad company for injuries received in an accident, and that Honshan was after that money.

MISS PINE FORTSCHOOL TRUSTEE.

Miss Alice Pine, whose nomination for School Trustee in the Fifteenth ward remains to be approved at the next meeting of the Board of Education, will be the first woman appointed to that office in this city. Though in aducational and charitable work for ten years, and she is now one of the managers of years, and she is now one of the managers of the State Charities Aid Association, having been appointed somewhat over a year ago. Her introduction to charitable work was at Bellevue Hospital, where she was connected with the surgical pavilion, first as an assistant and afterward as superintendent. While she attended some of the lectures given at Bellevue her training was largely self-acquired by sheer industry and study along with her work. The training school for nurses in connection with Bellevue interested her much, and she was instrumental in starting a training school for nurses, in connection with the City Hosfor nurses in connection with the City Hos-pital. She helped to start schools for nurses in the insane departments of the Kings County Insane Asylum and at Poughkeepsie. Bhe is a sister of John B. Pine, the attorney, at whose residence she lives.

A Jall Bird Assaults a Woman

George Valentine, aged 22, got out of the Paterson jail on Tuesday, after serving a sentence for stealing a watch. While in jail he got acquainted with William Acker of 26 God-win street, Paterson. On Wednesday night, in company with Samuel Cronk, he called at Mrs. Acker's residence and said he wanted to see her about getting her husband out of jail. She invited them in, and immediately her visitors pulled down the curtains, locked the door and began an assault on her. Cronk braced himself against the door, while Valentine struggled with her. She fought with all her strength and screamed for assistance. The condition of the room afterward showed that she had a terrible struggle. Her screams were so loud that Valentine and Cronk became alarmed and escaped. Mrs. Acker made a complaint before Justice Hudson, and both Cronk and Valentine were arrested. Constable Post had a terrible fight with Valentine while arresting him, but Cronk went quietly. company with Samuel Cronk, he called at Mrs.

Detective Corcoran and Policeman Zimmerman of the Bedford avenue police, Williamsburgh, yesterday morning traced a barrel of sugar, which had been stolen from Grocer Henry Wohlis of South First and Havemeyer streets, to William Wood's rooms in Connelly's alley. While awaiting Wood's appearance William Wilson, a young crook entered the place laden with brass valves and faucets. They arrested him arraigned him before Justice Nacher, and then they discovered Woods among the court room loungers waiting to see what was done with his pal. Wilson and Wood are in Baymond street jail to await trial.

A Labor Candidate Sued for Libel. John J. Clancy, the Labor candidate for Mayor of Brooklyn, was served with papers yesterday in a suit begun by Mr. Wilbur M. Maben for $10,000 for libel.

Mr. Clancy, in his addresses, alleges that Mr. Mabon received $170 for withdrawing from the fight for the Assembly against Alfred C.
Chapin when Mr. Chapin was nominated in the Eleventh district of Kings county.

Hideous in Every Guise,

hether it be the best known form, chills and fever Whether it be the best known form, chills and fever, or else bilious remittent, double ague or ague cake, is that abominable disorder involving the liver, the bowels, and the kidneys, known as malaria. Every complaint classified under this generic, though erroneous appellation, is destructive of the nervous system, but is, unhappily, not to be subdued, or even checked, by the use of ordinary nervines, febrifutes, or tonics. There is, however, prompt relief and ultimate cure to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, fore host among the proprietary remedies of America, and widely known in other lands. Not only diseases born of miasma, but rheumatic complaints, superinduced by exposure in bad weather, inherited or incurred debility of the kidneys weather, inherited or incurred debility of the kidneys or bladder, dyspepsia, and an irrestular condition of bowels are curable, nay, certain to be cured by this de-servedly esteemed and professionally sanctioned cor-rectiva.

SOME STARTLING FACTS.

The Discovery of the Cause of Most Un timely Benths that Come Upon the Community.

The official returns of the city of New York show that The official returns of the city of new love soon was nearly three-fourins of all deaths are from consump-tion. When we stop to calmly think over this fact it is really awful. And yet every case without exception started from small beginnings. A cough in the morning; tickling in the throat; a thick, phiegmy discharge; chilliiess at night; difficult breathing; a tightness across the thest; these and many more symptoms indicate the presence of that terrible disease, which unless checked, means certain death with long and painful suffering.

means certain death with long and painful suffering.

In view of such servious and ever-present facts, the suggestions and advice of the most eminent physicians are of the greatest value.

Dr. John (lardner, one of the most eminent physicians in London, says: "Science, common sense, Holy Scriptures, and all experience testify to the benefits derived from the use of pure whiskey."

Dr. H. D. Barkersays: "I have used and examined Duf""" Pure Nett Whiskey, and find it the best I ever tried."

fy'ePure Malt Whiskey, and find it the best I ever tried."
Dr. S. M. Buckwaiter says: "Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is, without doubt, the invalid's drink when stimulants are indicated, and I find all chronic cases require stimulants, and a large per cent. of the acute once also."
These truths, from the lips of the leading scientific men of the day, and confirmed by the experience of men and women well known in the community, should sorve as a guide for all who feel the approach of consumption, no matter by what path it may come. We do not hesitate to assert that any man or woman who will use Juffy's Fure Mait Whiskey according to directions can dely consumption and prolong life with all its blessings. fy'sPure Mait Whiskey, and find it the best I ever tried.
